BOYS SOCCER:(6-6-2 , 3-4-2 league)

- 1/26: La Salle 1 - St. Anthony 3
 - The Lancers fell to St. Anthony 3-1 last night. The Lancers dominated possession and chances and nearly scored 10 seconds into the game as Max Barrios hit the post. The Lancers had 5 shots on goal in the first half and couldn't capitalize on the chances and St. Anthony scored off a corner 1 minute before halftime. The Lancers once again came out hot in the second half and created 3 more chances in the opening 5 minutes. The breakthrough came when Alexander scored his first career high school goal in style, after a 30 yard volley sailed over the Saints goalkeeper into the top corner. This brought momentum to the Lancers but couldn't find the back of the net again as St. Anthony took advantage of the numbers being computed forward. The Lancers face a tough test in their final two games to try and claim a playoff berth.
 - Scoring Results -
 - Alexander Levy - 1

- 1/28: La Salle 3 - St. Genevieve 0
 - Our Lancers earned a huge push for a playoff bid tonight grabbing a huge 3-0 win over the Valiants of St. Gen. The Lancers got on the board with 2 first half goals in a span of 60 seconds with Alexander Levy grabbing his second goal in as many games. Right away after the Valiants kickoff the Lancers pressed and St. Gen scored an own goal off a backwards pass towards the keeper. The Lancers then sealed the win off of a Dominic Manriquez penalty kick with 10 mins left in the game. Will Thorell had a massive game stepping in goal and earned his first career high school clean sheet. The Lancers look to seal a playoff spot on Monday during senior night against St. Monica with a ticket to the CIF-SS playoffs on the line!

Catholic Schools Week:

Monday: Senior Service Day + Candyland

We kicked off the week with our Senior Class leading the way through service, spending the day at various community sites, including First Church of the Nazarene, the Altadena Collaboratory, Project Angel Food, and Mater Dolorosa. Through these experiences, our seniors lived out our Lasallian mission by serving others with compassion and purpose.

Back on campus, the rest of our Lancers celebrated with a Candyland-themed dress day, filling the school with pastel colors and school spirit.

Tuesday: Sophomore Service Day + Scrabble

Our Sophomore Class was out in the community on Tuesday for Catholic Schools Week, spending the day serving at sites including the First Church of the Nazarene, the Altadena Collaboratory, Mater Dolorosa, the LA Food Bank, Fred Jordan Missions, and the Saint Francis Center, living out our Lasallian commitment to service.

Back on campus, students showed their creativity for Scrabble Dress Day and jumped into a fun Scrabble-themed lunchtime activity.

Wednesday: Junior Service Day + Spot it

Our Junior Class spent the day out in the community for Catholic Schools Week, taking part in service projects at sites including the First Church of the Nazarene, the Altadena Collaboratory, Project Angel Food, the LA Food Bank, Fred Jordan Missions, Santa Teresita, and the Saint Francis Center.

Through these experiences, students had the opportunity to give back, work together, and engage with the communities they serve. Back on campus, Lancers kept the spirit light with Twin Day, teaming up with friends and matching in style.

Thursday: Freshmen Service + Jumanji

Our Freshman Class continued Catholic Schools Week by heading out into the community for the final day of off-site service. Students spent the day at sites including the First Church of the Nazarene, the Altadena Collaboratory, Mater Dolorosa, the LA Food Bank, Project Angel Food, and the Saint Francis Center.

This marked the conclusion of our week of outreach, as students across all grade levels lived out our Lasallian commitment to service, compassion, and community. Back on campus, Jumanji Dress Day added some adventure to the day, with jungle and safari-inspired looks bringing extra spirit as we head into the final days of Catholic Schools Week.

Catholic Schools Week Prayer Service

Catholic Schools Week came to a close today with a meaningful prayer service that invited our community to pause, reflect, and recommit to lives rooted in service.

Throughout the week, each class stepped beyond campus to serve at sites across the city. Today's prayer service brought those experiences together through the "Hearts of Service" activity, where students wrote personal commitments reflecting how they hope to live with greater intention and care for others. These hearts now serve as a reminder that our strength as a community is built on everyday acts of compassion.

As we move forward, we carry with us the reminder that service is not a single moment, but something we return to again and again.
