School News

Center for Cultural Perspectives

Two groups of La Salle students and teachers recently returned from meaningful cultural exchanges in Buenos Aires, Argentina, and Shanghai, China. Each journey brought new friendships, lasting memories, and perspectives that will stay with us.

Through these experiences, our eyes and hearts were opened to new cultures and communities. Living with host families and engaging in daily school life allowed us to truly connect with people and the spirit of each school in ways that go far beyond the classroom.

Next Friday, we look forward to welcoming our final visiting group from Sacré-Cœur La Salle Reims, France, the birthplace of Saint John Baptist de La Salle and our shared Lasallian heritage.

To learn more about the Center for Cultural Perspectives, please contact Ms. Sun at 626-696-4389 or jsun@lasallehs.org. Be sure to follow us on Instagram as well!

Wine & Dine Recap

Wine and Dine brought together members of the La Salle community for a wonderful evening on Friday, March 6, at the University Club in Pasadena. Hosted by the Luck P'26, Hutton P'28, and Scolnick P'28 families, the event welcomed 50 parents, faculty, staff, and board members in support of the Lancer Support Fund.

We are deeply grateful to the Luck Family, the Hutton Family, and the Scolnick Family for their generous hospitality and leadership in hosting such a meaningful evening, and to all who attended and supported this effort. Your generosity and commitment continue to strengthen the La Salle community.
